Walton Ford: Pancha Tantra

Synopsis

Beauty and the beasts:Â Walton Fordâ€™s sinister wildlife scenes Â At first glance,Â Walton Fordâ€™s large-scale, highly-detailed watercolors of animals recall the prints of 19th century illustrators John James Audubon and Edward Lear. A closer look reveals a complex andÂ disturbingly anthropomorphic universe, full ofÂ symbols, sly jokes,Â andÂ allusions to the â^operaticâ€™ nature of traditional natural history. In this stunning but sinister visual universe, beasts and birds are not mere aesthetic objects but ratherÂ dynamic actors in allegorical struggles: a wild turkey crushes a small parrot in its claw; a troupe of monkeys wreak havoc on a formal dinner table; an American buffalo is surrounded by bloodied white wolves. In dazzling watercolor, the images come to impress as much for theirÂ impeccable naturalismÂ as they do for theirÂ complex narratives. This updated edition ofÂ Pancha TantraÂ features the artistâ€™s most recent works and contextualizes his collection of bestial tableaux with anÂ in-depth exploration of his oeuvre, a complete biography, and excerpts from his textual inspirations: Vietnamese folktales and the letters of Benjamin Franklin, theÂ Autobiography of Benvenuto Cellini, and Audubonâ€™sÂ Ornithological Biography. Â Text in English, French, and German

Customer Reviews

Walton is his own artist. No, he is not the contemporary Audubon. By style, technique and concept he is a new and provocative creative force.

Just love this book!! Best hostess gift of the summer!

Beautiful book! I especially love the solid brown hardcover with gold lettering under the jacket. Very reminiscent of Audubon. The images are excellent. The book was in perfect condition.

Love these works! I bought the book for my husband's coffee table collection and it's a great addition. Lots of comments from friends, esp when placed out around Halloween.

Gorgeous. However, pretty much the same as the other, cheaper Walton Ford book. Don't get the difference. But his work is so amazing.

I just love it!!
