Wish it had been a longer book. I have some OLD Disney books that have a good, long story. wish these newer books had more substance. Having said that.... my grandson loves the story and enjoys it very much

This is a really cute book with a cute story about believing in yourself. I enjoy getting to read a "Buzz Lightyear and Woody" book that isn't the same as the 3 movies I've seen 100 times with my son.

I'll be honest, Grandpa didn't think much of this story, but I'm not really the target audience, am I? My soon-to-be 3-year-old grandson is a big fan of the "Toy Story" franchise and he can't get enough of Woody and Buzz. The illustrations are great, but there is a bit too much text on some pages to hold little ones' attention. However, I find that if I use a variety of voices for each of the characters and provide a suitably dramatic reading, my grandson is quite entertained with this story.

RECOMMENDED

Little Golden Books, without fail, always get 5-stars from me. Whether old classics or based on newer movies, the print, binding and colors are all nostalgic and the quality really holds up to kid fingers.

I collected Golden Books when I was a child and always loved them. Now, in my twenties I still think they are the cutest thing for kids. I recently bought this one and I have to say it was the cutest story and I really enjoyed it. Any Toy Story fan will enjoy this short story.

Son loves toy story so naturally loved this book. We like to reenact them with the toy story figurines we have from the disney store. But his favorite toy story golden book is still toy story 3.

My grandkids love all that is Toy Story, and these Little Golden Book stories are like a continuing series of what is happening with Woody, Buzz and the gang.

Arrived quickly. My son loves the story.
