Customer Reviews

Very nice arrangements. Not really difficult but more intermediate which is good for me because I get so nervous in public. It's easier to play an intermediate piece well than for me to try an advanced and stumble through it. lol

Not having a music store near me, I am relying on for all the music I purchase. I have found this classical book of hymns to be inspiring both to me and the worship group of seniors for whom I play each Sunday. My favorite is "Praise to the Lord, The Almighty" but every piece of music is very usable for preludes and offertories. These hymns require some practice on my part but after 2-3 times through, they flow quite nicely. I recommend this book for a church pianist - or for pleasure for yourself.

My son and I both really enjoy these arrangements. Lots of fun and very musical.

I love traditional hymns but have had only one year of piano lessons so this book is too advanced for me. It will probably take me 5 years or more to be able to play the arrangements in this book.
