There are 25 various animal designs in this great coloring book. They are of the outline of an animal with â œdoodlesâ • added to making coloring them a fun experiment in colors. The designs include at least one: wolf, dog, cat, tiger, lion, bear, owl, elephant and more. Some of the designs are head shots while others are full body images. I like that there is a variety in poses as well as animals as it gives me more to choose from when I pick up the book to color. Doodle animals are a favorite of mine because I get to imagine animals in wild and fun colors. The designs are printed on thin white non-perforated paper which is typical of CreateSpace publications. The paper is medium weight and the binding of this book is glued rather than sewn or stapled. There is plenty of room to cut the page out if you wish. All designs stop well before the margin. Coloring pencils work well on this paper but all markers and gel pens bleed through. Not a problem â “ I am now using a piece of chipboard under my work to keep ink from leaking through to ruin the design below. You can use heavyweight paper or card stock but be sure to check to see how many layers you need to keep it from leaking through. The reason I like chipboard is it can be reused over and over again and is available at office supply stores or on-line. These are the coloring medium that I use for testing.

You will want to color every single image in this coloring book filled with our most beloved animals, filled with both pets and wild animals from around the world. You will find House cats and Wild cats, Dogs, a Fawn, and Owl, a Bear, Horses, a Parrot, a Fox, an Elk with huge antlers, a Salamander crawling, a Bunny, a Rhinoceros, A Camel, an Elephant and more all adorned in artistic and imaginative doodles. The cover picture is included in this book and the doodle adornments are representative of all the images in this book, however you will find 8 portrait type images that are just the heads of animals like the cover picture, and 16 full body illustrations. This is a wonderful coloring book for animal lovers of all ages including Adults, College students and School aged children. Perfect for a family gift that will provide hours of quality family time or cut off the binding and use these images for a class or coloring group.

1. 24 Illustrations printed one per page (The back of each page is blank) on medium weight, bright white paper.
2. All Markers I tested bleed through the pages; I just place a sheet of paper under the page I am coloring if I use markers, to prevent damage to the next page.
3. Colored pencils will indent the next page unless protected; I place a clip board under the page I am coloring when I use colored pencils.
4. All images are centered on each page and leave at least 1/2" between the image and the binding, this means coloring the entire image is easy and removing individual pages from the book using a box cutter is also easy.
